IN THE BEGINNING

"In the beginning..." It is written in the Old Book known as Genesis in the Holy Bible that you read and adore. And it is also written "in those days" or "in the end of days" in the Revelation of the Beloved St John the Divine which speaks of what is to come and what is to be. This is the full circle of the life of humanity, the world of men, of mankind, as you know it.

This applies both to the the earthplane and the development of each human spirit that ventures upon the earthplane and uses these experiences to rise upwards, to grow, to reach towards our Father Mother God. Sometimes this is done for inspiration, sometimes for help, sometimes in the depths of their earthly sorrow, and sometimes for thanks and ecstatic praise for what has been received.

Darkness and light are both of one nature, different only in seeming,
for each arose from the source of all.
Darkness is disorder.
Light is Order.
Darkness transmuted is light of the Light.
This, my children, your purpose in being:
transmutation of darkness to light.

- Thoth - Emerald Tablets

The great master Thoth in an incarnation long before your time quoted the maxim: as above, so below. And we wish to add: as within, so without. So as you see your earthplane changing around you each and every day, indeed sometimes in each moment, then you must know that you are changing within as well. We ask that the chaos that is around the earthplane at this time as part of these changes not be reflected as chaos within and without of the self. Otherwise, your lives would be filled with material and other unwise thoughts, actions and deeds.

So it is asked that you be the calm within the middle of the storm, the eye in the centre of the hurricane where stillness prevails and many who are lost or in need of nurture come to rest, to recover, to replenish themselves so that they can survive the "battles" as they see them that lay ahead. This is part of the work of your temple, that is, to be a place of peace, of respite, of upliftment, of healing, of learning and divine fellowship, both during activities, afterwards and at other times.

The great Revelation [mentioned above] describes the great changes within the development of the human soul as it progresses in its path towards realisation of the divine and becomes divine itself. It is a great work, given in analogy, of this progress as seen by the Beloved disciple of our great Master. It was also asked that some things seen, that is, parts of it, could not be written down. This is because even in analogy, the profane eyes were not allowed to see or to read it. Our Father Mother God understood the temptation of those who might wish to change or to circumvent the process that all souls must go through in order to progress onto the next higher levels in the higher worlds when they return to them after their journey upon the earthplane.

So you see that the changes around you are part of this process both within and without, be it across the earthplane, the parts of the astral worlds which are being redefined at this moment. Yes, the lower realms of the higher worlds are also being changed at this time as the higher worlds are being uplifted into even higher realms. These highest planes are beyond the comprehension of all but a very few who have been able to venture in them, let alone those who have seen them whilst upon the earthplane.

As they have been lifted up, there is a divine vacuum, if you wish, a great pull upwards. And the worlds below will slowly be uplifted too to take their place, that is, they will be made divine over time.

And every plane is shifting and changing at this time to allow this great upliftment to happen, right down to the lowest levels of the earthplane and all who dwell upon them. This includes the realms that you dwell whilst asleep as well as those whilst working or at play, including those that you visit in your spiritual experiences, such as meditation or in prayer.

Therefore, some elements of the older order will no longer be the same. Everything is changing but for the better. Some of the old learning that some have received will change as it is raised up to a new and higher level. We wish to remind you here that there are basic elements of eternal truth that will however stay the same: the power of our Father Mother God almighty, the power of the Christ, the power of Divine Love as shown by our Master, the eternal laws of Divine Truth, the Golden Rule (love one another and especially your neighbour as well as all creation), use Discretion and your Protection within all that you do.

If you hold these basics in place, listen to the guidance of your Temple and live your lives as harmoniously as you can then you will find that you will rise above the earthly chaos and noise in order to both help and uplift all of mankind.

We see the love that you send out to all. Keep this work up and ask that all who cannot see, that they can see, and that all be raised up into a place of Divine Love and Peace. Once this begins to happen even more widely then you will see the beginnings of Heaven on Earth, as our Master called it. This will be because Earth will have been raised up towards the Heavens where it was in the beginning, is (becoming) now and ever shall Be. Amen.
